

Summer School 2012

OVERVIEW

You are considering working in international affairs in the future and would like to know more about it?

Come and join us for a one week full immersion in the life of an expert at the United Nations Office in Geneva.

This one week intensive summer course is designed for high-school students from 16 to 19 years old.

Located in Geneva, capital city of diplomacy, the course is a unique exposure to the work of international relations actors.

See how global affairs are managed on a daily basis, meet with students from all over the world, make contacts for future internship opportunities, reinforce language skills.

Conducted by professors from the Geneva School of Diplomacy, the curriculum aims at providing you with an understanding of the functioning of international affairs.
